PAW PAW, MICHIGAN.

PRINTERS IN BIG LUCK.

THEY STOLE A MARCH ON THEIR TOWNSMEN.

The Fire Record—Sensational Episode at a Jewish Funeral—Uncle Sam Jealous of His Money—Important Assignments in the Roman Church.

Scared by an Infernal Machine. At Waltham, Mass., an infernal machine at Glenn's furniture store caused lots of trouble, not because it exploded, but because it wouldn't go off. It contained four bottles of nitro-glycerine. The boxes in which it was conveyed were placed on the side of the hill and shots were fired at them by policemen. Upon investigation the bottles were found to be broken, but no explosion followed. Among other things found in the peculiar box were envelopes addressed to John C. Van Loh, showing him to have been in St. Petersburg, Berlin and Paris at different times. There was a torn piece of the London Times of December 16, 1889, and the letters also bore this date (1889), but one of them was sent in July and the others in October.

RUSHING FOR TOWN LOTS. Guthrie Printers and Editors Make Good Use of Early Information.

When the announcement that Secretary Noble had awarded 140 acres to the Guthrie, O. T., town site was received at the office of the State Capitol, the entire force, including the printer's devil and bindery girls, rushed from the office in a wild race for city lots. They were the first on the ground and secured $5,000 worth of lots. Soon hundreds were flocking to the scene. Many waded the river of icy water and thousands gathered about camp fires sitting on the cold ground, but feeling happy in the possession of homes. Women and girls are there by the score, some hardheaded and without wags, and many are hard at work making improvements. The city council met in special session and appropriated a large part of the land for city manufacturing sites.

STRANGE SCENE AT A FUNERAL. Superstitious Hebrews Excited by a Baited Horse in the Cortège.

At New York funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Borchinski and her little son Isaac, who were murdered in their apartments in Williamsburg, were held in a lively style near their late home. At the conclusion of the services a funeral procession was formed. It had proceeded hardly a block when one of the horses attached to a coach conveying several mourners became balky and could not be made to move. The superstitious Jews gathered about the coach and cried: "The murderer is in here; the horses will not go." They became so excited that the police had to charge on them and drive them away. Another horse was procured and the procession moved on. Hoboken police arrested Szentvany János, a Polish Jew, who confessed that he murdered Mrs. Borchinski and her child in Williamsburg.

QUEER CASE OF COUNTERFEITING. Advertisements of a Stove Said to Be a Violation of the Law.

Captain Thomas Porter, of the Government secret service at Chicago, has a queer case of counterfeiting on hand. A few days ago, while walking along the road, his eye fell on an advertisement of a stove manufacturer. The maker's trade mark was a representation of a $20 gold piece. The picture of the coin on the bill-board was fifteen inches across, but under the law against counterfeiting it was a violation. It was learned that the company had issued a catalogue and dodgers in which were contained representations of the $20 yellow bill. Captain Porter ordered the company to cease printing the catalogue and dodgers and surrender the plates. The company refused to surrender the alleged counterfeit plates, and counsel was engaged to make a test case of it.

MR. PLUMB IS DEAD. Apoplexy Carries Off the Senator from Kansas.

Senator Preston B. Plumb, of Kansas, died at his lodgings in Washington. The cause of his death was apoplexy and fatty degeneration of the heart, caused by overwork. With his death disappears one of the most foremost men that the West has ever sent to Congress. With him the State of Kansas and the Southwest lose a champion whose aggressive individuality it will be hard to replace.

ELEVEN HOUSES BURNED. Business Property at Croton Landing, N. Y., Destroyed—Blazes Elsewhere.

A fire started at Croton Landing, N. Y., which burned eleven houses. The total loss is estimated at about $25,000. Fire destroyed the Hotel Wellesley at Needham, Mass. The loss is $50,000, partially insured. The few boats Annie Roberts and Coni Valley were burned to the water's edge at Pittsburg. The boats were valued at $25,000 each.

SHOT DOWN IN COLD BLOOD. A Husband and Wife Murdered by a Cowardly Gang in Louisiana.

An old man named Jack Smith quarreled with Wright Poland at Buckhorn, Webster Parish, La., recently. To get revenge Smith, with his three sons and four other men, rode to Poland's house in the night, summoned Poland and his wife to the door, and shot them dead. Smith, one of his sons, and three other men have been arrested.

New Bishops for the United States. A cable dispatch from Rome announces the appointment of Very Rev. Ignatius F. Horstman, D. D., of the Cathedral, Philadelphia, as Bishop of Cleveland, Ohio; Rev. Sebastian Messner, D. D., professor of canon law in the Catholic University at Washington, as Bishop of Green Bay, Wis.; and Very Rev. James Schwela, N. Vicar General of La Crosse, Wis., promoted to that vacant see.

Two Steamships Wrecked. A London dispatch says: The steamer Yunan has been wrecked at Swatow. Her cargo was also lost. The steamer Tougshan went to the assistance of the Yunan and was also driven ashore by the heavy gale prevailing and is probably a total loss.

Rocking Chair for Baby Cleveland. Members of the St. Louis Furniture Board of Trade have forwarded to ex-President Cleveland a child's rocking chair, intended as a gift to Baby Ruth. The chair was made from timber from the door of the old log cabin home of General Grant.

MR. MILLS VERY ILL.

The Texas Congressman Threatened with an Attack of Pneumonia.

Roger Q. Mills has the grip. He is confined to his bed in Washington and is threatened with pneumonia. Since the close of the Speakership contest he has been ill, and has now been compelled to take to his bed. Dr. Sowers, the President's physician, was called and remained with him all night. In the morning he was no better, and Dr. Hyatt, a specialist in lung diseases, was called, and after a long and careful examination said that the Congressman's lungs were affected and that pneumonia might result. The physicians have issued positive orders that no one be allowed to see the sick man.

ELKINS GETS THE JOB. He Is Nominated for Secretary of War by the President.

The President has sent to the Senate the nomination of Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia, to be Secretary of War. In some quarters the nomination of Mr. Elkins is something of a surprise, although his name has frequently been mentioned in this connection recently. Stephen Benton Elkins, the newly nominated Secretary of War, was born in Perry County, Ohio, September 26, 1841. He removed to Missouri while quite young, graduated from the Missouri University in 1860, and subsequently studied law. He served in 1862-3 as a Captain in the Twenty-seventh Missouri Regiment. In 1864 he was admitted to the bar of New Mexico. Then he accumulated a fortune in mining and stock raising. He was a member of the Territorial Legislature in 1868-9, and United States District Attorney in 1870-72. He was then elected to Congress on the Republican ticket, and served two terms, from 1873 to 1877. He was a member of the National Republican Committee from 1872 until 1884, and was once its Chairman. He took an active part in the Chicago convention of 1884.

FEMALE CRANK IN BALTIMORE. She Hides in a Church with the Intention of Killing the Priest.

At Baltimore, Mrs. Mary Rosenbauer, while laboring under the hallucination that Rev. J. C. Schantz, assistant pastor of St. Alphonsus' Church, had killed her mother, concealed herself in the confessional box usually occupied by the priest, with the intention of shooting him. The priest was late entering the church to hear confessions that afternoon, and as he was about to leave the parsonage a boy warned him that Mrs. Rosenbauer was hid in the church and had threatened to kill him. An attendant looked through the church, but the woman had gone. Father Schantz swore out a warrant for the arrest of the woman as a dangerous crank.

INDIANA MINERS WEAKENING. Probability that the Strikers Will Soon Be Ready to Compromise.

Indications point toward a termination of the black coal miners' strike near Terre Haute, Ind., within the next few days. The officials of the Association of Mine Workers hint mysteriously at something in the near future. They no longer attempt to conceal the fact that the miners are suffering of hunger. At Brazil, the center of the black coal region, many business houses have already closed and the outlook for Christmas is a dreary one for the miners' families. The promised assistance to the strikers from other districts comes in small dribbles, and the commissaries find it a hopeless task to feed five thousand people on the few thousand dollars received from the outside.

FOUR KILLED BY AN EXPLOSION. A Saw-Mill Boiler at Ridgeville, Ind., Blows Up with Frightful Results.

Three persons were killed outright, one mortally wounded and several others badly injured by the explosion of the boiler in the saw-mill of A. Collett, at Ridgeville, Ind. The boiler was a large one and apparently in good order. It had three ranges of water, and started up under the usual amount of steam, running under low saws. A belt ran off, and the engineer went to shut down the engine and throw on the belt when the explosion occurred, and as all in the building were killed at once it will never be known how it happened. The mill is a total wreck. The explosion was felt all over the city.

LADYBUGS FOR AFRICA. Thomas Louw Going Home After Fulfilling a Novel Mission.

Thomas Louw, a prominent legislator and horticulturist of Cape Colony, Africa, who was sent to this country by his Government to procure ladybug enemies of the cottony cushion scale and look into the agricultural and horticultural interests of California, has left for home. He obtained a supply of the ladybugs to take back with him, and he also made arrangements to have a number of orange trees consisting of several varieties, which do not exist in Africa, transported to that country in a miniature hot-house.

Famine and Small-Pox. The specter of pestilence has added its terrors to the famine in Russia. In two small villages of the government of Riazan, 200 persons are down with small-pox and fifty deaths have already occurred. Small-pox is also ravaging the provinces of Viatka, Samara, Kharkoff, Vladimir, Kursk, Orenburg, Peterhoff and Saratoff. In addition to this visitation of small-pox, typhoid fever is carrying off numerous victims in various provinces.

Petrified in the Grave. The village undertaker at Nashville, was employed recently to remove the body of Mrs. Mary Reynolds, who at the time of her death, some years ago, weighed 300 pounds. The undertaker found that the body had become petrified. It weighed 800 pounds, and it took a dozen men to land it into a wagon.

Kingman's Sad Fate. At Grand Rapids, Mich., Henry Marshall Kingman, Vice President and ex-Cashier of the First National Bank of Chicago, committed suicide by hanging. Kingman retired from active duty in the bank a year and a half ago by the advice of his physicians owing to ill-health.

THE RECORD OF CRIME.

AN EPIDEMIC SEEMS TO HAVE STARTED.

A Burglar Who Has $200,000 Hidden About to Be Pardoned—Cincinnati Has a Lively Time—Will This English Fad Find Favor with American Ladies?

Business Prospects Good. R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

As the end of the year approaches general trade slackens and there is perhaps not more than the usual disposition to defer large transactions until after stock-taking and the holidays. It is satisfactory to see from nearly all points that the reports which note the inactivity usual at this season also observe a prevalent and strong belief that the business of the coming season will be unusually large and profitable. Commercial credits and confidence are in satisfactory shape for the transaction of an enormous business early next year. Excepting at a few places the money markets are well supplied. The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number 235, as compared with 320 last week. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 404.

TROOPS ORDERED OUT. Strikers at Crested Butte Getting Desperate—Trouble Feared.

Troops have been ordered to Crested Butte, Colo. The situation is growing critical and an outbreak may occur at any moment. The Italian strikers have been drinking freely, and there was great danger of a conflict between them and the forty Austrians who returned to work and virtually ended the strike. The proprietors of Austrian boarding houses received threatening letters to the effect that their buildings would be blown up with dynamite. For this reason the force of business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number 235, as compared with 320 last week. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 404.

ROB AT CINCINNATI. Indignant Tax-Payers Mob the County Treasurer's Office.

There came near being a re-enactment of the bloody court-house riot of 1884 at Cincinnati. A great mob of tax-payers and others rushed into the County Treasurer's office to pay their taxes and avoid the penalty. The bills were delayed until the day previous, and it was impossible to take all the money presented. A man put a revolver under the nose of the receiving clerk and said he would shoot if the money was not accepted and receipted for at once. The great crowd on the outside grew riotous and hurled stones through the window. One man was knocked insensible, and two women were crushed almost to death. A riot alarm was sounded, a large body of police arrived and by vigorous action cleared the street and drove off the more belligerent rioters.

BLOODY DUEL WITH KNIVES. Joseph Harris Killed by John Aiken Near Morgantown, Tenn.

One of the bloodiest duels ever recorded took place near Morgantown, Tenn. Joseph Harris had suspected that John Aiken was too intimate with his young wife, and on several occasions had told Aiken that his presence was not desired at his (Harris') home, and for him to discontinue his visits. Aiken did not heed the warning. Harris and Aiken met in the public road, and hot words passed. Harris drew a long-bladed knife and made a desperate lunge at Aiken. By this time Aiken had his knife out, and both men cut and slashed each other until Harris fell dead, with the knife of his antagonist still sticking where he had plunged it.

BAD RAILROAD WRECK IN KANSAS. A Number of Illinois and Iowa People Among the Injured, Some Fatally.

The passenger train from Kansas City was wrecked two miles north of Cherry Vale, Kan., by the displacement of a rail, owing to decayed ties. The three coaches were hurled down a high embankment with about forty passengers. Twenty-six persons were injured, three of whom will probably die. The seriously injured were rescued before the fire had consumed the coaches, although a number sustained severe burns.

The occasion of his appearance was a lecture on anatomy delivered by Mrs. Jopling Rowe to her fellow artists and illustrated by Sandow.

Coming Out to Enjoy His Fortune. James Dunlap, the Boston bank burglar who "cracked" the safe of the Northampton National Bank in January, 1876, is about to be pardoned. Dunlap has served fourteen years of his sentence of twenty. He, with six others, robbed the Northampton Bank of $1,200,000 in bonds and cash. Three of the robbers turned State's evidence and got off, after Dunlap had compelled them to restore the money stolen. It is believed that Dunlap has $200,000 of the plunder yet hidden, as some $400,000 was never returned.

Resigned His Office. Daniel E. Soper, Secretary of State of Michigan, tendered his resignation to Governor Winans. Charges were preferred with the Governor and verified by Mayor Johnson, of Lansing, charging malfeasance and misfeasance in office.

He then sent word summoning the military company, but by the time it arrived the mob had completed its work and departed.
